IV. Statement of Claim:

(State briefly and concisely, the facts of your case. Include the date(s) of the event(s) alleged as well as the location where the events occurred. Include the names of each defendant and state how each person named was involved in the event you are claiming violated your rights. You need not give any legal arguments or cite to cases or statutes. If you intend to allege a number of related claims, number and set forth each claim in a separate paragraph. You may use additional 8 1/2 by 11 sheets of paper as necessary.)

The town of Southampton in an unconstitutional effort has implemented a local ordinance requiring state registered sex offenders to register locally under Article I Sections 215-1 through 215-5 of the Southampton code thereby violating Article I Section 10 of the United States Constitution forbidding any enactment of an ex post facto law, and the State preemption doctrine. Susan Westergard, by and through Gregory Blas, in their official and individual capacities under color of law has denied me my rights, privileges and/or immunities, guaranteed by the United States Constitution in that under the sex offender trailer program, I'm denied the freedom of locomotion as other free men enjoy, affecting my ability to earn a living and to attend therapeutic programming. This deprivation is an ongoing breach of such rights as the program offers us diminished rights as if we are prisoners.

IV.A

If you are claiming injuries as a result of the events you are complaining about, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment you required. Was medical treatment received?

V. Relief:

State what relief you are seeking if you prevail on your complaint.

Plaintiff is seeking compensatory declaratory injunctive relief and punitive damages in the sum certain amount of $25,000.00 as it relates to qualifying defendants in their respective official and individual capacities.
